

PKF in MENA

about us

an international network with a regional focus

The Middle East and North Africa (MENA) region encompasses approximately 21 countries. The region is an important source of global economic stability due to its substantial petroleum and natural gas reserves, in addition to its location between three continents: Asia, Africa and Europe.

how we work

Spread throughout the region, PKF MENA firms ensure clients are served wherever they desire. We provide custom made services according to international standards and local insight and experience. Our services are delivered to clients with quality, accuracy and speed ensuring client satisfaction.

Our creative and flexible solutions enable our clients to improve their performance, achieve their goals and excel. By collaborating regionally with support of a global network, PKF MENA firms add value with every client interaction.
